Hi Ginny, Could it be that Catherine Robinson Donoughue was never married to Dorian?? I am quite sure his name was Dorian. Perhaps my mother didn't even know that they weren't married. Yes my Mom "found" her mother dead in the apt. The police came and told my Mom to leave and to go home, that they suspected "foul play". I believe Catherine would have been buried in a "paupers grave", by the city of Boston. When she was with Dorian (they cut out and sewed the blue and white striped uniforms for the railroad engineers, right there in that apt. using commercial machines, in their kitchen) I am certain they lived on Boylston St. I never heard that my mother heard anything ever about her mother, after that day. If I "find anything more I will let you know. Leone

Marriage Notes for MARY DONOHOO and LEON PINNEY:

On her baptismal certificate there is a note - married Leon Pinney Aril 28 1944 in St Paul's church Franklin New Hampshire.

It's tough to read but it looks like some type of dispensation was granted.

The marriage record in the county of Washington, Town of Whitehall New YOrk notes that this is Leon's 3rd marriage, and Mary's 2nd marriage.

Leon's previous marriage ended in divorce granted in Mexico on Jun 1932. Mary's preious marriage ended in divorce grancted in Aug 6 1933 in Salem Mass.

Children of MARY DONOHOO and JOHN WHITNEY are:

- i. RAYMOND JOSEPH⁵ WHITNEY, b. August 09, 1910, Lowell Mass; d. July 1974, Hathorne, Essex, Mass; m. JOSEPHINE GRINKAVICUIS; b. December 12, 1906; d. July 24, 1990, Lawrence, Mass.

Notes for RAYMOND JOSEPH WHITNEY:

According to Leone, his sister, After the mills closed Raymond went to Hudson New York to look for work at one of the estates. Raymond was beaten by one of the police cops patrolling the area and suffered head injuries. He ended up at Danver State Hospital for over 25 years due to this injury.

Leone has her brothers date of death as Feb 1975. SSDI lists it as July 1974. She notes he was found dead by roadside.

Notes for LEONE CAROLYN PINNEY:
During Dec 2002

Dear Ginny - It was great to hear from you and especially in regard to the research that you are doing. I'm so thankful that you are sharing this information with me. This is exciting! I will try to make corrections (from what I think I know) and answer your questions. I hope I can make them clear enough so as not to confuse you! I am rather convinced that DONOUGHUE is the correct spelling. I'm quite sure that John Donoughue's sister was Mary Ann Donoughue Stacy married to Walter Stacy (a meat cutter) of Lawrence MA. They had 3 daughters Marion V, Louise and Helen and 3 sons Walter II, Raymond (and Allen(Alan)?). Marion and Louise were elem school teachers in Lawrence and never married. Helen, also a teacher married Thomas? Connelly, they had one son Thomas. Walter was married and had I think 3 sons. Raymond married had a son and twin sons. Marion, Louise, Helen, Walter and Raymond, my mother's cousins, she often visited with them in Lawrence at 51 Smith St from before I was born until Marion died about late 1980s. Louise died previous to Marion. Last I knew Helen's husband Tom had died and she suffered a stroke and was in a nursing home.

I never heard that John and Mary Ann Donoughue had other siblings (yes a brother Michael. Mary (T's) sister was adopted from a Catholic home, either Lawrence or Lowell. I would estimate between 1905 and 1915. The four children of John Donoughue and Catherine (Kate) Robinson Donoughue were placed in this home about 1904. Parents separated (divorced) Kate worked in a "Business Man's Club" (as my mother Mary said). Kate (Catherine) was married to John? Frank? Dorian at least when I was about 10-12 so that would have been in the 1940s (or before). Catherine (Kate) was found dead in bed by daughter Mary Theresa Pinney about late 1960s or in the 70s. Kate (Catherine) lived at that time in a 1-2 room apt in Boston. I know it was a poorer section but I can't remember street unless it was Boylston St.

Mary's brother John Edward was referred to as "Eddie" by Mary and her grandmother. Mary often gave up her $3-$6.00 weeks pay so Eddie could have new shoes, as requested by their grandmother. Most of the time Mary was allowed to keep only $.50 out of her pay; grandmother took remainder. I got the impression that "Eddie" didn't work much.

Well Ginny I hope at least some of my notes and copys are helpful to you. Please keep in touch. Happy New Year, Leone

You are welcome to keep all included in this package.

My mother's father, to my knowledge never came to visit her. He may have died in NY but I don't know why I think this.

Notes for KATHERINE DONOHUE:

According to her niece she was placed in a Catholic home when her parents separated in 1902. A wealthy person(s) removed her from the home shortly later and raised her. She moved to Waterbelick New York.

Checking Middlesex county court we find a Guardianship request for Catherine Donahue dated July 26 1904 to James P Rafferty of Lynn Massachusetts, Essex County. It states that Catherine is the child of Catherine Donahue and John Donahue of Lowell. It is noted that neither John Donahue and Catherine Donahue could be found in the Commonwealth when the petition was presented. It also states that it was listed a notification in the Lowell Daily Mail for 3 successive weeks.

Finally it notes that this child being in custody of said petitioner and the parents of said child being intruperule and having deserted said child and unfit for her custody and he pray for her custody dated July 1 1904. Catherine was born in Lowell Sept 27, 1899.

Her niece Leone recalls that she died in Watervliet, New York. She doesn't recall her married name though.

Hi Ginny,

I found "the" letter from Mom's sister, but feel badly that there was no envelope or return address or last name, except Catherine signed the letter, "your loving sister Kitty", the heading on the letter was Pittsfield, MA, 02-18-45. She wrote that her daughter Olive's baby would be a year old in Mar. of 1945. She said taking care of the baby while Olive worked in a department store was tiring to her. I remember too, when I saw her, the only time, she was in a wheelchair, and Mom said that she had Parkinson's Disease. Her husband would come home at noon time to feed her lunch. I was certain that he worked in the Watervliet Arsenal, but perhaps I had that confused with Helen Stacy Connelly's husband who did, for sure, work there. I hope that I am not confusing you!

If I "find anything more I will let you know. Leone

Mr Francis J Donohoe, son of Mrs Delia A Donohoe of 420 High street and Miss Louise E Pollard daughter of Mr and Mrs Samuel Pollard of 9 Everett street were married Saturday morning at a nuptial mass at 9 o'clock at the Immaculate Conception church. The ceremony was performed by Rev William Quinn OMI. The church was attractively decorated with white roses and carnations

The bride wore a handsome ivory pointe-de-venis lace gown. The dress was fashioned on classic princess lines and was made with train. Her ivory bridal illusion veil was held in place by a coronet of the lace. The bride carried a mother of pearl prayer book to which was attached orchids and Lillie of the valley.

Miss Helen V Pollard, sister of the bride was the bride's only attendant. She wore a blue tinted rose point lace gown. The dress was a Schiaparelli model. She wore pink accessories and her bouquet was of pink roses and blue delphinium. Mr Edward T Donohoe, a brother of the bridegroom was The best man. The bridegrooms boutonniere was of lilies of the valley while the best man wore a gardenia in his suit lapel.

Prior to the entrance of the bride, Miss Beatrice V Deignan organist, played an organ prelude. Among the selections were "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly". As the wedding party entered Miss Deignan played the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" and at the consecration John Sullivan sang "Mother at Thy feet is kneeling" and later sang "Ave Maria" by Rosewig. Miss Lillian Sullivan sang "Consecration to the Sacred Heart" and "Ave Verum" by Millard, during the mass. At the communion Miss Sullivan and John Sullivan sang in duet "O Lord I am Not Worthy". A Prayer for a Perfect Life was sung by John Sullivan near the end of the mass. At the conclusion of the ceremony Miss Deignan played Mendelssohn's "Wedding March".

Seated in the sanctuary during the nuptial mass was Rev William J Kelley OMI.

A wedding reception took place at the Vesper Country Club following the mass. Palms and cut flowers were used effectively at the club house to decorate and provide a background for the wedding party.

Mrs Donohoe is well known locally as a teacher at the Abraham Lincoln school while Mr Donohoe is connected with the Lowell Evening Leader mechanic department.

Following an extended wedding trip, Mr and Mrs Donohoe will make their home at 82 Hanks street.

Burial: January 25, 1954, St Mary, Immaculate Conception, Lawrence, Mass

Marriage Notes for HELEN STACY and THOMAS COSTELLO:

According to their son Tom in 2003: I do know how a Helen Stacy from Lawrence Mass met a Thomas Costello from West Rutland Vt. it was because Helen worked a summer at least, at Lake Bomeseen Vt. where she met one Mary McCormick who subsequently married Patrick Costello. Helen was invited to the wedding where she met Patrick's older brother, Thomas. The rest is history. Patrick and Mary were Bill's parents and Helen and Tom later became my parents.

Child of HELEN STACY and THOMAS COSTELLO is:

- i. THOMAS⁵ COSTELLO, b. March 09, 1946, Troy, NY; m. SANDI RUTH WEINROTH, March 25, 1971, Albany, New York; b. October 09, 1948, Miami, Florida.

Notes for THOMAS COSTELLO:

e-mails received from Tom Costello in Nov 2002

My mother always said her mother was a Donohue of the Glen. The Allen side descended from one of Ethane's brother. I have a ceremonial sword with the name "Allen" etched on the blade. I used it when I was an officer at the military high school I attended. By the way, Marion and Louise paid the $25 a month tuition for me to go.

Walter H. Stacy was from somewhere in upstate New York. My mother always said he used to drive harness racers until he got too heavy. That's when he came to Lowell of Lawrence. I was unaware that my aunt Mable and Uncle Walter outlived "Sonny" (their son Walter) He and Virginia were so kind to me when my dad died so unexpectedly. I spent Summers at the camp they rented. No plumbing, my first acquaintance with an outhouse and a pump.

We raised our children Jewish. I had left the Catholic Church in the sixties and became a Quaker. While Sandi and the other boys remain Reform Jews, Jim has become quite Orthodox. All born at Albany Medical Center Albany NY. Dr. Levon Bodrossian physician in attendance.

Notes for SANDI RUTH WEINROTH:

Per her husband Tom Costello - November 2002

Sandi Ruth Weinroth was born Oct. 9 1948 in Miami FL to Ralph Weinroth and Rose (Shaene) Weinroth. we have the bill from the hospital. She cost $25 to bring into the world. Money well spent in my humble opinion.

Marriage Notes for THOMAS COSTELLO and SANDI WEINROTH:

Tom married Sandi Ruth Weinroth March 25, 1971 in Albany at the Unitarian Church. Louise, Mary Anne, his cousin Harold and his mother Mary were in attendance.

12. HAROLD⁴ STACY (MARY³ DONAHOE, EDWARD² DONOHOE, MICHAEL/HERBERT¹ DONOHUE) was born July 31, 1911 in Lowell Mass, and died Bet. 1959 - 1965 in Methuen, Mass. He married MARY CARNEY. She was born January 23, 1915, and died September 05, 1990 in Methuen, Essex Co, Mass.
